WASHINGTON, D. C.

ORDER NO. 1719

IN THE MATTER OF:

Served June 29, 1977

CENTRAL DELIVERY SERVICE OF ) WASHINGTON, INC. - Investigation ) and Revocation of Certificate No. 23)

Docket No. 386

On March 4, 1977, respondent Central Delivery Service of Washington, Inc., filed a certificate of insurance with the Commission indicating, inter alia, that a $5,000 aggregate deductible applies to all liability claims. Consequently, by letter of March 12, 1977, the Executive Director of the Commission informed respondent that no approval for such self-insurance had been granted by the Commission and directed that a proper certificate of insurance be filed forthwith. On May 20, 1977, a revised certificate of insurance was filed, again containing the $5,000 deductible provision. In subsequent telephone conversations and by letters of June 2 and June 6, 1977, respondent was again reminded of its duty to maintain appropriate security for the protection of the public pursuant to Title II, Article XII, Section 9(a) of the Compact and Commission Regulation 62 thereunder.

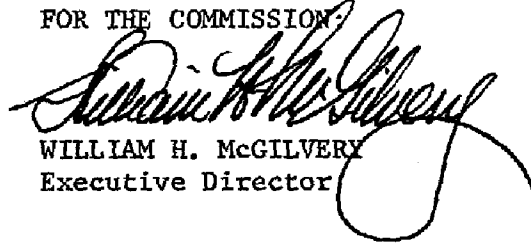

On June 25, 1977, respondent's certificate of insurance expired. Accordingly, the Commission finds that respondent is in violation of the above-referenced regulatory requirements.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

1. That the above-captioned proceeding be, and it is hereby, instituted for the purpose of investigating whether Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity No. 23 issued to Central Delivery Service of Washington, Inc., shall be revoked.
2. That Central Delivery Service of Washington, Inc., be, and it is hereby, made a party to said proceeding.
3. That pursuant to Title II, Article XII, Sections 4(g) and 9(a) of the Compact, said Certificate No. 23 be, and it is hereby, suspended until otherwise ordered by the Commission.

4. That Central Delivery Service of Washington, Inc., be, and it is hereby, directed, within 30 days from the date of service hereof, fully to comply with the provisions of the Compact, Title II, Article XII, Section 9(a) and Commission Regulation 62 thereunder, and is further directed within said 30 days to file with the Commission an appropriate certificate of insurance or such other evidence, in writing and under oath, as respondent may deem pertinent to show good cause why its certificate of public convenience and necessity should not be revoked.

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "William H. McGilver", is written over the typed name and title. The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large loop at the end.
